Consent to your details being provided to another agency or authority

We are likely to need to contact another agency or authority to seek further information about the matter. We may also decide to refer the matter to another agency or authority for further action. This may include the agency or authority involved. While we endeavour to respect your wishes wherever possible, in some circumstances it may be necessary for your identity and contact details to be disclosed to an external agency for the purpose of dealing with the matter appropriately.

I do NOT consent to my personal details being provided to another agency or authority.

If you do NOT consent to your personal details being provided to another agency or authority, please explain your reasons:

Details of complaint

The Inspector can conduct reviews relating to the conduct of any person exercising or purporting to exercise functions and powers under the Independent Commission Against Corruption Act 2012.

Reviews may also be undertaken in relation to relevant complaints under the Ombudsman Act 1978.

If your matter does not involve a person exercising or purporting to exercise functions and powers under these Acts, your matter may not be able to be investigated.
